

HILL JURY BELIEVED NEAR AGREEMENT AT NOON

HICKMAN DENIED
DELAY IN SECOND
TRIAL THIS MORN

He and Hunt Forced to Go to Trial for Toms Slaying

BULLETIN
Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 15.—(AP)—William Edward Hickman, condemned slayer of Marian Parker, was placed on trial with Weiby Hunt, 16, before Superior Judge Elliott Craig here today on a charge of killing C. Ivy Toms, druggist, in an attempted hold-up.

Jerome Walsh, chief counsel for Hickman, pleaded unsuccessfully for a continuance, his motions for a delay being denied both by Judge Craig and Presiding Judge Carlos S. Hardy, who assigned the case.

The jury box was filled with eight women and four men as prospective jurors and Judge Craig read the indictment against the two youths.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 15.—(AP)—A move by attorneys for William Edward Hickman to delay the joint trial of Hickman and Weiby Hunt for the slaying of C. Ivy Toms was blocked by Presiding Judge Carlos S. Hardy today and the case assigned to Superior Judge Elliott Craig for trial.

Jerome Walsh, Hickman's young chief counsel, presented his plea for a continuance when the trial was called.

The prosecution had announced itself ready for trial. Hunt's attorney, Gray Gilmer, asked by Judge Hardy if he was ready, said he would not oppose the motion for a continuance if it were only until Monday, as he had been informed.

Hunt Lawyer Ready
"Are you ready?" insisted Judge Hardy.

The attorney answered that he was. Judge Hardy thereupon declared that an insufficient showing for a continuance had been made and that under the new law demanding absolute proof before the granting of a continuance, he would be forced to deny the plea.

Hickman and Hunt, partners in crime, were ordered into the court today for trial on charges of slaying Toms in an attempted drug store holdup in Roswell, a suburb, on Christmas Eve, 1927.

Will Be Enemies
Hickman and Hunt will be enemies in the impending trial. Hickman has voiced his eagerness for a chance to testify against Hunt in retaliation for the testimony which Hunt gave the prosecution in the Parker case. Hunt, however, who originally pleaded not guilty to killing Toms, has intimated through counsel that he might plead guilty in exchange for a "fighting chance" to get leniency. He is under the age limit for execution.

Toms was killed in a gun battle in his drug store while Hickman and Hunt were attempting a holdup. Whether it was Hickman or Hunt who fired the fatal shot has not yet been clearly established. Hickman was carrying a 38 caliber pistol and Hunt had a 32 caliber gun. The bullet which killed Toms was one of the smaller size.

SPLIT IN CONFERENCE

Havana, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Failure of Honorable Pueyrredon and the other Argentine delegates to the sixth Pan-American Conference to appear at the morning session of the committee on Pan-American union affairs, caused rapidly spreading rumors that Dr. Pueyrredon had already sent in his resignation as chairman of the Argentine delegation. It was also consistently rumored that Dr. Pueyrredon had resigned from his ambassadorship at Washington.

Fine Interest Shown

Here in "Lindy" Mail

Postmaster John E. Moyer this morning received his first consignment of the special air mail envelopes, which will be used by Colonel Charles Lindbergh next week in his flight from St. Louis to Chicago over his old route. C. E. Arnold of this city was the first to purchase one of the envelopes this morning and throughout the day numerous requests were being received at the postoffice for the special envelopes. Sales today indicated the public of Dixon were anxious to place this city in the first division in supplying mail for Lindbergh's flight next week.

This special Lindbergh air mail can be sent anywhere in the United States on the postage outlined by Postmaster Moyer in Monday's Telegraph, and the arrangement enables the sending of momentous souvenirs to any relative or friend anywhere. It is essential, however, that each letter bear a return address.

St. Louis, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will continue his work of experimental flying despite the hazards connected with it.

TWO BOYS HELD IN OHIO MAY BE
WANTED SLAYERS

Authorities Believe
They Have Youths
Who Escaped

St. Clairsville, O., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Two youths, captured after an exchange of shots in woods near here, were held today by authorities who believed they might be John Burns and Samuel Baxter, who disappeared while being taken to the Pendleton Indiana reformatory.

They said they were Albert Jennings and Frank Fornes, both 17, of Youngstown, Ohio. They resemble the escaped prisoners, Sheriff Hardesty said.

They were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Louis Shaw and Wayne Street, who chased them from a filling station into a wooded area, where the youths abandoned their automobile. A shot missed the officers, but Street returned the fire and wounded Jennings in the leg. The pair then surrendered.

A checkup revealed the youths' car had been taken from a street in Columbus and another left in its place. The abandoned machine had shotgun shells in the rear and the steering wheel was covered with blood.

Sheriff Hardesty said both boys had cut wrists, which he believed the result of breaking from handcuffs.

Rathbone Fighting for Bell Insurance

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Mrs. Minnie Bell of Rockford, Ill., widow of Major General George Bell, Jr., has received assurances from Congressman-at-Large Henry R. Rathbone of Illinois that her husband's $10,000 war risk insurance will be paid in a lump sum.

Upon his death recently the government maintained the General was disabled when his war risk insurance policy was converted into a government life insurance policy and that therefore the widow was entitled only to monthly disability payments of $57.50.

Congressman Rathbone has obtained affidavits from friends of the late General attesting to his health previous to his death, which he hopes will result in the payment of the policy. He said he would introduce a special bill into Congress, if other measures to obtain payment failed.

$8,000,000 Verdict

Newark, N. J., Feb. 15.—(AP)—A verdict of $8,000,000 was on record in Federal Court today against the estate of the late James B. Duke, tobacco magnate.

Damages were awarded George D. Haskell, manufacturer of Springfield, Mass., who charged Duke with entering into an arrangement with him for the exploitation of aluminum properties and then selling out to Aluminum Company of America. Haskell had asked $45,000,000 damages.

Duke's 14-year-old daughter Doris, to whom he left the bulk of his $33,000,000 estate upon his death, Nov. 10, 1925, would be the chief sufferer from the verdict.

AVIATOR IS KILLED

Dayton, O., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Captain Thomas H. Miller, Post Surgeon at Wright Field, was killed and Captain Edward Laughlin, chief engineering officer at the airport, was injured seriously when the plane in which they were riding fell just outside of Fairfield, east of the post this morning.

He said, however, that he had no definite plans at the present except to try to rest in private life.

As Col. Lindbergh was leaving the hangar yesterday following an exhibition flight before 60,000 school children along the river front, he was stopped by a reporter who asked him his opinion of Secretary of War Davis' proposal.

"What is the proposal?" asked Lindbergh.

"He says he is going to ask you to stop stunt flying."

"Of course I can't answer that off hand and say what my course will be," he replied. "I don't consider what I have been doing as hazardous flying in the sense that I have taken unnecessary risks. At the outset when new methods of transportation are coming into use there must be pioneers to show the way and some of them are killed. But the ones who do the pioneering are the last ones to think of the hazards."

"Have you any particular flights in mind?"

"No," he replied. "There are so many things to be done."

"But for the present there is no cause for worry," he added with a smile. "From now on until further notice I am in retirement."

"I need a rest in private life and am going to try to get it."

The last of his public appearances here for a time was scheduled for today when a banquet was planned in his honor.

STEPHENSON ON STAND TELLS OF BRIBE ATTEMPTS

Gives Evidence Today
Against Gov. Jackson of Indiana

Indianapolis, Feb. 15.—(AP)—With defense objections eliminated by instruction of the defendant, D. C. Stephenson, former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, today told of an alleged conspiracy to buy the Marion County prosecutorship at the trial of Gov. Ed. Jackson.

The former Klan leader, who now is a life prisoner at Michigan City, told of taking $10,000 from a strong box to give Gov. Warren T. McCray in 1923 if McCray would name James E. McDonald to the vacated office. Gov. Jackson, George V. Coffin, Marion County Republican chairman, and Robert I. Marsh, formerly an attorney for the Ku Klux Klan, were in conference frequently relative to getting "one of our group" in the office, Stephenson declared.

Governor Jackson, watching the witness intently, leaned forward and talked hurriedly with his attorneys as they persisted in objecting to Stephenson's testimony.

Withdraw Objections

Clyde H. Jones of defense counsel then said:

"The Governor has asked me to withdraw all objections and let the witness tell his story."

Stephenson qualified himself as a witness by asserting that he had been a close personal and political friend of Gov. Jackson from 1922 until 1924. He said he had done everything in his power to bring about Jackson's election in 1924.

Testifying as a state witness Stephenson charged that an effort had been made to kill him since he was sent to the state prison on a murder charge in November 1925.

Stephenson also declared he was prevented from testifying in his own defense at his murder trial at Noblesville, Ind., because he had been threatened by Hiram W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, that he would be killed as he sat in the witness chair.

The witness denied he had given a paroled convict $1,500 to employ a Chicago gunman to kill Gov. Ed. Jackson.

Jackson is on trial charged with conspiracy to commit a felony and attempt to bribe.

The obituary will be published later.

LEE O. BROWNE,
FAMOUS LAWYER
BELIEVED DEAD

Fell Into River this Noon at His Home in Ottawa, Ill.

Ottawa, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Lee O'Neill Browne of Ottawa, for more than 20 years a member of the Illinois Legislature, fell into the Fox river at his home here today while showing a friend his estate and while firemen with resuscitation apparatus began working over the body when it was recovered 15 minutes later, little hope was entertained that he could be revived.

CAPITAL SHOCKED

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—The House of Representatives suffered a noticeable shock today when announcement of the reported drowning of Lee O'Neill Browne of Ottawa was received. For a full minute work stopped.

Browne had long been a Democratic leader. His picturesque figure was seen more in efforts to stop legislation, than to enact it. He was the second oldest member of the House.

Representative Thomas O'Grady, Chicago, advised the House of Representatives this afternoon that he had called the home of Lee O'Neill Browne and had learned that the veteran legislator's body had been in the river for fully ten minutes, and that desperate efforts were being made to resuscitate him with pulmotors.

Over 500 Farmers
Attend Institute

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—More than 500 farmers today attended the opening here of the thirty-third annual Illinois Farmers' Institute.

They heard advice from National leaders, devoting the opening session largely to information on dairying.

For the first time the program was divided with a labor leader when Victor Olander, Secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor, addressed the agriculturists. He spoke on the necessity of co-operation between the farmers and labor.

Dr. Arnold Kegel, Chicago, Health Commissioner, assured the dairy farmers that Chicago's interest was one of co-operation, and that he would work to have nearby states put in force testing standards on an equality with those in force in Illinois.

Henry R. Rathbone, Congressman-at-Large for Illinois, attended the meeting to learn at first hand the farmers' desires for national relief legislation.

Attorney John Buckley of Amboy transacted business in Dixon Tuesday.

EARL OF OXFORD AND ASQUITH IS SUMMONED TODAY

Great Britain's Early War
Premier Died Early
This Morning

Sutton Courtenay, England, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The Earl of Oxford and Asquith, who as Herbert H. Asquith, Prime Minister, was an outstanding figure of the World War, died here at 6:50 A. M. today.

Pulmonary complications brought death to the 75-year-old statesman at his country home, The Warf, in this little Old World village on the banks of the Upper Thames. He had lived here since his retirement from public life after resignation from the leadership of the Liberal Party in October, 1926.

Lord Oxford had been unconscious since Monday afternoon and his physicians said then that death was only a matter of how long his enfeebled heart could hold out. A week ago the former Premier was confined to his room with a severe cold, an acute attack of laryngitis followed and bronchitis set in.

Family At Bedside
At his bedside when he died were the members of his family, Lady Oxford (Margot Asquith), his two daughters, Princess Bibesco, and Lady Bonham-Carter, and his son Anthony Asquith.

Throughout the night a few close friends and a number of villagers who knew Lord Oxford well awaited the end, which physicians had said was inevitable because of his advanced age and weak heart.

As the former Premier fought his losing battle with death another outstanding statesman of the war, the Earl of Balfour, was confined to his home near Prestonkirk, Scotland, on the orders of his doctors. Earl Balfour, who is nearing his eightieth birthday, had an acute attack of

McNary-Haugen Bill
Reported to Senate

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The revised McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Agriculture committee today after two hours' consideration.

By its action, the committee put the controversial farm problem again before the Senate by a unanimous vote of those members present.

Some, however, reserved the right to oppose the bill on the floor and to offer amendments.

The modified bill still carries the equalization fee which was so strenuously opposed by President Coolidge in vetoing the measure passed last session, but it is believed to meet several objections then voiced by the President.

The fee now would be levied only in the event of emergencies and could be made to apply on all commodities, whereas only the basic commodities were included within provisions of the vetoed measure.

A revolving fund of $250,000,000 would be created from which loans at 4 percent interest would be made available for cooperative marketing associations.

ASK BIG STOCK ISSUE

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—The Illinois Commerce Commission today received an application of the Illinois Power & Light Corporation for authority to issue $4,000,000 worth of mortgage bonds; $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock; and 130,000 shares of common stock, valued at $50 per share.

This statement was made by Rep. Homer Tice of Greenville. To replace ward committeemen in Chicago's primary system, he said, would be to put that city back under "boss" rule.

When the amendment seeking this substitution was introduced in the house today, a well-defined resistance became apparent. Several speakers applauded the change more roundly applauded, both by members and by the gallery.

Two Illinois newspapers, the Chicago Daily News and the Springfield Illinois State Register were freely quoted in the discussion, in opposition to the change.

Representative Truman A. Snell of Carlinville was the first domineering representative to take part in what had been considered a Chicago affair, he declared that it would be foolish to tamper with an election act that had been passed upon favorable by the Supreme Court after 25 years' effort.

New Knox Library
Galesburg, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Two former residents of Quincy, Ill., held the center of attention today at the dedication of the new $200,000 library at Knox college here. One was Henry Seymour, Payson, Ill., farmer, who built the library and presented it to the college and the other was Dr. Edgar Goodspeed, nother bibliologist and University of Chicago professor, who gave the dedicatory address.

The dedication was concluded when Mr. Seymour presented the keys of the library to President Albert Britt of Knox.

LEECH DENIES
MOTIONS MADE IN BOOZE CASE

Refuses to Impound
Alleged Evidence
After Arguments

Judge William L. Leech denied motions of Attorneys Albert Hanneken and H. A. Brooks yesterday afternoon, to impound evidence in the case brought against William Ryan of this city charged with violation of the Illinois prohibition law. The attorneys also attacked the validity of the search warrants, which they argued as being insufficient, but this was also overruled by the court who held that the complaint and search warrant were sufficient. Practically the entire day was spent in the presentation of arguments to have the first of several cases thrown out of court on alleged technicalities.

Justice of the Peace William Dykeman, who at a preliminary hearing, dismissed action against Ryan and Asquith, who were taken in raids early in December and Sheriff Miller and his raiding force impounded, was questioned on the witness stand by State's Attorney Mark Keller.

The docket of the Justice showed that the warrant in the Ryan case was "improvidentially issued." In response to questions the Justice admitted that he did not know the meaning of the word "improvidential" and further admitted that in this instance, one of the attorneys representing parties taken in the raids, had written the entry in his docket, his only official act being that of affixing his signature.

Minority Opinions
on Primary Statute
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Signed by Justices Dunn, Farmer and Thompson, a minority opinion that the premarry act of 1927 is constitutional was made public today by the Supreme Court. The majority opinion, which upheld the act, was handed down last week.

Three reasons for the minority decision were given: first, that the act was unconstitutional because it contained two subjects, in both title and body; second, that committeemen in small precincts are given more power than committeemen in large precincts; and third, that no provision is made for filling vacancies in event of death or removal of committeemen from precincts.

It was further objected that the provision that the County Central committee name committeemen did not provide representation for the people. Removal of the city of Chicago from provisions requiring registration also invalidated the act, the minority held.

Anti-Lowden Move

BULLETIN

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—By a vote of 89 to 41 the House today approved an amendment to the primary act, substituting ward for precinct committeemen in the city of Chicago.

This vote, however, will not be sufficient for final passage of the amendment, as it is an emergency measure 102 votes will be necessary.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Substitution of ward for precinct committeemen in Chicago was made a national issue in the Illinois House of Representatives today, when it was charged that the move disguised an attempt to hamstring Frank O. Lowden's candidacy for the presidency.

This statement was made by Rep. Homer Tice of Greenville. To replace ward committeemen in Chicago's primary system, he said, would be to put that city back under "boss" rule.

When the amendment seeking this substitution was introduced in the house today, a well-defined resistance became apparent. Several speakers applauded the change more roundly applauded, both by members and by the gallery.

CHIMNEY FIRE TODAY

The fire department was summoned to 606 Munroe avenue this morning at 7 o'clock, where a defective chimney had filled the house with smoke. The damage was slight.

SENT TO CO. JAIL

William Knapp was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Chief Van Bibber on a vagrancy charge and was sent to the county jail by Police Magistrate A. E. Simonson for a period of thirty days.

FILED COMPLAINTS

A delegation of property owners residing north of the Illinois Central right of way on Forest avenue, appeared before the city council at the regular meeting last evening and entered complaint as to the conditions existing on the street. The street was reported to be in an impassable condition and complaint was also registered as to the lack of fire protection in that particular neighborhood.

LUMBER MEN MET

About fifty retail lumber dealers, building contractors and carpenters gathered at the Elks club dining hall last evening and enjoyed a dinner at 6:30. This was followed by the showing of a motion picture which depicted the construction of a fibre board made from sugar cane pulp after it leaves the mills. A representative of the company from the head office at New Orleans, La., E. H. Frith was present and gave a very interesting talk on the new building material, and also furnished some fine demonstrations of the value of the product to the home builder.

C. OF C. PRIMARY

Members of the Dixon Chapter of Commerce are casting their ballots in the primary election for the choice of six directors, whose terms expire this year. The primary polls will close at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening and all ballots must be in the tellers' hands by that hour to be counted. Directors whose terms expire, and who cannot succeed themselves are: George Burch, O. H. Martin, John Moyer, F. X. Newcomer, Frank Cahill and George Prescott. Hold-over directors are: H. U. Burdwell, D. G. Harvey, L. G. Rorer, Max Eichler, C. A. Mellett and Robert Warner.

HELD AS AUTO THIEF

Joseph Moynihan, aged 14, of Ann Arbor, Mich., was arrested yesterday afternoon at the home of his uncle, Charles Gugerty, who resides east of Nachusa on a farm, and is being held at the county jail awaiting the arrival of an officer. The youth is said to have stolen a Ford sedan from the streets of Ann Arbor on February 3 and to have driven the machine to Detroit, where he was arrested.

When being taken to the Community Home by an officer, Moynihan is alleged to have made a successful break from the officer and escaped, coming direct to Franklin Grove to the home of his uncle where he was arrested yesterday by Deputies Richardson and Frank Miller from the sheriff's office. Chief of Police Thomas O'Brien of Ann Arbor is expected this afternoon to return with the boy.

MRS. SAM BAKER DEAD

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, who left Dixon a year and a half ago for Fairmont, Md., to care for the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker, both of whom were invalids, have received word of the death of Mr. Baker's mother, which occurred Monday morning.

OLD MASTERS

LINCOLN DISCUSSED BY DIFFERENT POETS—
(Christian Science Monitor)

Edwin Markham is of the earlier group. The keynote of his intensely beautiful poem is to be found in the title, "Lincoln, the Man of the People." He finds in Lincoln the smack and tang of elemental things; the rectitude and patience of the cliff; the good-will of the rain that loves the leaves.

Edwin Arlington Robinson's poem "The Master—dates back by the lines—
A flying word from here and there
Had sown the name at which we sneered;

but the poet sees, beyond the sneering, the grandeur—

Shrewd, hallowed, harassed, and among
The mysteries that are untold,
The face we see was never young,
Nor could it ever have been old.

In conclusion he expresses the disciplined thought—
Nor shall we longer disagree
In what it is to be sublime,
But flourish in our perigee,
And have one Titan at a time.

In Vachel Lindsay it is not so much the master and Titan that is revealed, as the man, lovable and lonely. The dramatic nature of the poem appears in the title, "Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight." How vivid is that picture—

A bronzed, lank man! His suit of ancient black
A famous high top-hat and plain worn shawl
Make him the quaint great figure that men love,
The prairie-lawyer, master of us all;

and the thought for humanity that cannot rest until it sees—the shining hope of Europe free;

The league of sober folk, the Worker's Earth
Bringing long peace to Cornland,
Alps and Sea....

And who will bring white peace
That he may sleep upon his hill again?

MENU for the FAMILY

BY SISTER MARY
BREAKFAST—Halves of grape fruit, cereal, cream, broiled bacon with calves' liver, cornmeal muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Sweet potato and sausage puff, apple and celery salad, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Ham loaf, macaroni baked in tomato sauce, scalloped corn, orange cream pudding, milk, coffee. Grape fruit and oranges are at their best now and every housewife should use them freely. These citrus fruits have a tonic effect and are decidedly beneficial to the very young as well as the very old.

Sweet Potatoes and Sausage Puff
Three or four sweet potatoes, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 4 tablespoons cream, 3-4 cup cooked sausage.

Cook potatoes, pare and put through ricer. Add salt, butter, brown sugar, egg well beaten and cream. Beat until light and fluffy. Add sausage finely minced. Pile in a buttered baking dish and bake in a hot oven until brown on top. Serve at once from the baking dish.

Mrs. Coolidge Could Not Attend Dinner

Washington, Feb. 15—(AP)—The cold that has bothered Mrs. Coolidge for almost a week kept her from attending last night a dinner given in the President's and her honor by Secretary Work. She remained in her room while the President attended the function, in the Pan-American building, where the Interior Secretary's daughter, Mrs. A. W. Bissell, of Evanston, Illinois, was hostess.

The illness is expected to cause cancellation of her engagements for the remainder of the week. Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Boone, her physician, has directed her to remain in seclusion but he is not seriously concerned over her condition.

Among the guests at the Work dinner were Governor and Mrs. Trumbull of Connecticut who were overnight guests at the White House. Others at the dinner were the British Ambassador and Lady Isabella Howard, Constantin Brun, the Danish Minister, Secretary and Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Senate and House leaders and figures in the business world. Governor Fisher of Pennsylvania and Governor and Mrs. Farrington of Hawaii, also attended.

Let Baby Follow His Noisy Complex

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 15—(AP)—Mothers! Let baby bang the pie tin with a spoon, throw his string of spoons in the air, wrestle the potato masher, or make a noise with anything he can grasp, shake or pound. It may be hard on your nerves, but it's fine for his.

Nez L. Boyd, director of the Recreation Training School of Chicago, Ill. House, gave this advice today to farm mothers attending the Illinois Farmers' Institute here.

"Every time the infant strikes a pan," she said, "every time he falls over and sits up again, every time he grasps the potato masher or recovers the unruly pie tin, he is becoming master of himself. Furthermore, this action is a step toward establishing habits of joy in activity and effort, and a preventive against irritability and fretfulness."

Play, noisy as it may be, is therefore the emotional outlet for the baby's vague and undefined efforts, she told the women. A failure to permit the baby to participate in play and further restraint when he grows older is one of the quickest ways to promote youthful crime and delinquency she said.

"The penalty for the neglect of proper outlets for the creative impulse, especially in children, is marking its pathway with these efforts," she claimed. "In fact, the utter neglect to play, this most dynamic force in the home and in the schools, is probably at the root of the most serious problems with which we are confronted in dealing with the children and youth today."

"The young child is no more responsible for his bad behavior than he is for a condition of under nourishment. The fault in both cases must be laid at the door of the parents and educators. Such behavior can be corrected in early childhood and thereby prevent more serious delinquency in youth."

"Proper outlets, then, for the creative or aesthetic impulse through

Valentine Card Party a Success

Mrs. C. H. Newman, Mrs. Wallace Hicks, Mrs. Wylie George, Mrs. Roy Withers and Mrs. John McIntyre delightfully entertained the members of the American Legion Auxiliary and their friends with a Valentine card party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Newman. There were thirteen tables for cards, and both bridge and five hundred were played. Mrs. Charles Hanson received the favor for high score at bridge; and Mrs. Wm. Nixon, low favor. At five hundred Mrs. Lester Ommen won high favor and Mrs. Henry Gehant low score. Delicious refreshments were served, the red heart of St. Valentine carried out in the ice cream, cake, candies and napkins, also in the score cards used. The afternoon was very much enjoyed.

ATTENDED ACADEMY PLAY AT LYONS, IOWA—
Mrs. T. J. Downs, sons William and Thomas, daughter, Miss Rita, and Mrs. C. B. Swartz motored to Lyons, Ia., Sunday, where they visited the latter's daughter, Mary Gladys, a student at Our Lady of Angels Academy. They witnessed the production of a play, "The Lost Heir," by the Academy students while there.

LADIES AID TO MEET THURSDAY—
On Thursday afternoon the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold a short business session at the conclusion of the program following the Woman's Home Missionary luncheon.

This will be held in the dining room of the church.

Was Hostess at Delightful Dinner

Last evening Mrs. A. W. Chandler was hostess at her North Dixon home, at a very delightful dinner given for a number of the bachelor girls of Dixon, followed by an enjoyable theater party at the Dixon theater where Will Rogers in "A Texas Steer," was the feature. Dr. Chandler joined the theater party. Lovely spring flowers and pink roses graced the beautifully appointed dinner table, as the center pieces; George Washington greeted the guests from the place cards; and the favors were miniature logs, bits of the proverbial cherry tree, with the hatchet ready for the awful deed, and the dessert further carried out in a clever manner the reminder of the Father of Our Country. Some bon mots passed between courses and caused much merriment, and the cards whereon the names of the "partners" were printed, which were received when the guests entered, also were enjoyed. Mrs. Chandler is a charming hostess and her guests so expressed themselves at the close of the happy evening.

Y.P.M.C. Enjoyed Its February Meeting
The Young Peoples Missionary Circle held its February meeting Tuesday evening at the Grace Evangelical Church. The families of the circle members were invited to a special program. There were about 65 present to enjoy the program as well as the social time and delightful refreshments. The officers of the Circle had charge of the meeting with the president, Mildred Schrock leading. After a song by all the Scripture lesson was read and prayer was offered by the leader. Special vocal numbers by Vern Schrock and Ethelyn Schrock and piano selections by Gladys Strop and two readings by Meriam Richard were appreciated by all. Helen Rose gave a very fine review of the lesson study on Companions of the Way. Gladys Newman read the Circle creed. Following the singing of the Circle song under the leadership of the pastor the business session was held.

Bridge Party Was Enjoyable Affair

Mrs. James Murphy, 621 North Hennepin avenue, was hostess last evening at a most enjoyable bridge party. Mrs. Murphy, who is a native of New York state, entertained in honor of a group of friends who also hail from that fine state, including Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Salisbury. Valentine decorations were employed throughout the home and the red hearts and cupid's were most attractive. At bridge, Mrs. Walter Mueller, won the prize for high score for the ladies; and Ralph Clark for the gentlemen; Mrs. James Bales being awarded the second prize for ladies and Clayton Hollinshead for the gentlemen. A most inviting luncheon with the Valentine decorations was enjoyed and at a late hour all sought their homes with memories of an exceptionally happy evening.

Elks Entertained Last Evening

Last evening the annual Valentine party was held at the Elks club house and there was a good attendance. Much fun was derived in the ballroom trying to catch the balloons floating in the air, the fortunate lady winning the balloon with the head prize ticket attached being Mrs. A. C. Reese; Mrs. Harry Stephan winning the second prize. The house committee served a nice luncheon in the dining room, and just before it was served very pretty paper hats were presented the guests who wore them. The entire evening was much enjoyed by all attending.

Musical Leader of Chicago, Chats of Us

The Musical Leader of Chicago, in the short, chatty paragraphs headed Random Arrows, carries this bit of news of interest to Dixonites and especially so to the members of the Dixon Civic Music Association.

Dixon, Ill., may not be listed among the ten most musical cities in the U. S., but it has at least one permanent booster for the arts in the person of Mrs. Willard Thompson. Due to her efforts, citizens of Dixon and nearby towns are awakening to a realization of the value of good music. Mrs. Thompson has unquenchable enthusiasm, and she was one of the most interesting and interested visitors at the recent Civic Music Association meeting. She has much to say about the improvement of musical conditions since her city came into the Association, and is equally happy over the recent concert presented by Echaniz and Wilfred Wallenstein. At present Dixon is all excited over the coming of the New York String Quartet, scheduled for Feb. 28.

Presbyterian Guild Elected Officers

The Presbyterian Guild enjoyed a picnic supper Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Phil Raymond, 706 Brinton avenue. Miss Mary Evelyn Miller acted as assisting hostess.

After the supper a business meeting was held. New officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Ralph Gonneman
Vice Pres. Mrs. Wm. Kew
Secretary—Miss Frances Patrick
Treasurer—Miss Mary Evelyn Miller.

Miss Camilla Thurston had charge of the study hour.

After the business meeting adjourned all those present enjoyed a number of games during the social hour.

Valentine Party for Waubesa Club Enjoyed

The members of the Waubesa club were entertained at a most enjoyable Valentine party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. O. Soper where Valentines were the pretty decorations. A pleasant social afternoon was spent in chat and music and the hostess served a tempting luncheon with Valentine decorations.

AMERICAN NAVY TARTS FRENCH FAD—

Paris—(AP)—Regulation hats and ties of American sailors are the last cry in smartness at French seaside resorts. On tennis courts and beaches where winter is forgotten in spring-like sunshine the little white navy hat is popular among men and women alike. Women wear the ties with blouses which have sailor collars, and men use them as scarfs or belts on white trousers.

FRANK L. SMITH'S CASE.

Frank L. Smith, senator-elect from Illinois, has resigned and is the possessor of credentials from Governor Small appointing him to fill the vacancy created by his resignation. He has announced his candidacy for the Senate in the special primary and election called by the governor.

The question soon to be presented will be a delicate one for the masters of technicality in the Senate to solve. Will they be driven into an open declaration of the logical conclusion to be drawn from their recent acts, namely, that a majority of the Senate has the right to prevent any man from becoming a member of that body who is personally objectionable, or will they see in the present state of facts a situation entirely different from the ones upon which they previously acted?

There was no taint upon the credentials which Governor Small gave Smith following the death of Senator McKinley, but the Senate decided that the appointment was given because of the primary victory in which Smith received contributions from public utility sources. That was enough to nullify the provisions of the Constitution, as far as the Senate was concerned, nor were its views changed when the voters of Illinois ratified the primary and all the accusations which grew out of it and sent Smith to Washington with a certificate of election.

What then of the credentials which Smith now holds, or those which he may obtain next November? Already there are men among those who fought Smith most bitterly in this session and the last who say that Smith in the new circumstances will have to be seated. In that event recognition of the right of the State of Illinois to be represented by two men in the United States Senate will have been granted, but there will not be, nor can there be, a correction of the blunder whereby the Senate sought to overrule the Constitution. That blot will stand forever on the records of the Senate.—Washington (D. C.) Post.

WHEREIN RUSSIA PAYS AN INSTALLMENT.

Part of the Russian debt has been paid, but not through any desire of the soviet government to meet the country's financial obligation to the United States. In fact the soviet objects to the transaction.

It appears that in 1916 the Russian government was the loser in an explosion of munitions on the Lehigh Valley railroad. The adjustment has been completed and payment of $984,000 has been paid to Serge Uhet, who was financial agent of the Kerensky government in Washington. The Kerensky government is the last Russian government recognized by the United States. The United States court ruled that he should receive the money as agent of the Russian government.

Agreement has been made that after counsel for Russia has been paid, the remainder shall be applied to the Russian debt to the United States government.

This proceeding was not at all to the liking of the soviet government, which has not been disposed to meet obligations of Russia incurred prior to the administration of Lenin and Trotsky. The foreign office of the soviet government addressed a protest to the department of state in Washington, but the United States does not recognize the Russian government, so the correspondence probably will end there.

PERSHING IS OUT OF IT.

There have been rumors, from time to time, that General Pershing was a more or less receptive candidate for the presidency.

We don't believe it, and we'll tell you why.

The other day the good general visited friends in a city that had not seen him for some time. Newspapers sent reporters and cameramen to greet him. And Pershing refused to be interviewed, and could be coaxed to pose for pictures only after long discussion.

A politician reporter and camera-shy? Surely not; not in America. Unless this man is different from all others, he is not planning on being elected to anything.

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK

"Oh, mercy me, lads, hang on tight. I guess we're due for quite a flight," said Copy, as the balloon rose high and floated through the air. "I'm glad we all grabbed this long rope. There's lots of fun in store. I hope wherever the balloon is taking us, I guess we'll soon be there."

The balloon glanced down and said, "Sit tight, and everything will be all right. I'll take you high up in the breeze and then we'll float around." Up, up they went at rapid pace. A frown spread over Copy's face. Said he, "I really wish that I was back down on the ground. 'Supposin' we should slip and fall. We wouldn't care for that at all. 'Supposin' it begins to rain. We'd sure get soaking wet." Then Copy chimed right in and said "Oh, shucks, you're just a scarey-head. No matter what we chance to do, you always have to fret."

Just then a great big bird flew near and slightly pecked at Copy's ear. He shouted, "Ouch!" and then he said, "I told you this was bad. We are not safe up in the air. I'd rather be most anywhere. Then Copy scared the bird away, which made wee Copy glad.

They sailed along an hour or so and then began to move real slow. "Oh, look," cried Copy. "Seems to me we're dropping toward the earth." And then they dropped to beat the band which meant that shortly they would land. This pleased wee Copy and he cheered for all that he was worth.

At last their small feet touched the ground. The balloon stayed near and looked around. And then it said, "Now listen here! I have a plan that's grand. You'll thank me for what I have done, 'cause you will soon have lots of fun. I'm going to tell you how you all can get to Rubber Land."

(The Tinymites head for Rubber Land in the next story.)

BY RUTH DEWEY GROVES

This is the third of a series of intimate letters exchanged by a modern daughter—MARYE—and her "old-fashioned" mother—"MOM"—to be printed daily in The Telegraph. Another will appear tomorrow.

Mother Dear:

Sorry I haven't had time to answer your darling old scolding letter before this but Norman has been just too "low" to be neglected. We've had some real heart-to-heart talks but he insists he never will forgive me for marrying Alan. Oh well, I suppose it will be romantic in my old age to think of someone who stayed single for the love of me—if he does!

Of course I know your objections to my going out with him appear perfectly sensible to you but they hand me a laugh, mother sweet.

We youngsters, as you call us, just can't see why we should be held responsible for mere possibilities. So long as we don't stretch our new freedom until it snaps we think we're all right. We wait for results before we worry about them. And we don't believe that going out with a man these days necessarily means unpleasant results. I guess it did when you were a girl if one of the two happened to be someone's better half. And I suppose Dad would have caved the "cad", particularly if it had been that young beau of yours that he cut out, if ever you had "encouraged" a man after you were married.

But no one with any sense at all expects to fill another person's whole life these days. We've found out one priceless thing that apparently our elders never discovered, or, if they did, few had the courage to acknowledge it. That is that two people who live just for each other will become so narrow they'll soon be bored to death.

You'll probably quote divorce statistics to prove me wrong. Well, it's my opinion that there would

RKS BUY OLD CLOTHES
 Constantinople—Turkey has been almost a Paradise for the old clothes man, the government suggesting that western styles of clothing be kept having created a demand for hand and apparel. In two years exports of second hand clothing have increased from 1000 to 2500 bales, each bale containing 200 coats, 75 overcoats and 875 vests. The United States is the largest source of supply. France is the only rival.

LILY BULBS IN DEMAND
 BERMUDA—More than 1,000,000 lily bulbs were shipped to the United States last year, but the American buyers of Easter lilies paid little more than half the 1926 prices. Bulb growers sell for use at funerals and weddings the blooms cut with the stems from the bulbs.

NEW FUEL FROM WASTE
 Stockholm—A Swedish civil engineer has discovered that excess sulphite lye and lumber left by the manufacture of chemical pulp can be combined to form a fuel which is said to burn more easily than coal, give no smoke and leave no slag residue. The lye, distilled by a new process, is absorbed by the waste lumber, sawdust, or wood shavings. When dry the mixture is shaped into briquettes or left in powder form for industrial use.

RADIO FOR CHINA
 Shanghai—The China Broadcasting association has been formed to provide an efficient foreign broadcasting service for musical and instructional programs. The association plans to rent a radio plant for certain hours and transmit its programs to members who pay $10 yearly.

GOVERNMENT MAKES REPAIRS
 Warsaw—The Polish war department has gone into the automobile business, owning and operating its own repair shops, capable of producing spare parts for all cars, trucks, and busses used by the army. Equipment and machinery are imported, chiefly from the United States. The shops are kept busy restoring to use the thousands of war-time discarded trucks purchased at a low price.

INCREASE MILK CONSUMPTION
 London—The British government is trying to keep dairy farmers prosperous and improve the health of its people by encouraging greater use of milk. As the per capita consumption is only about one-third of a pint, as compared with one pint in the United States, the liquid milk surplus has been growing, reducing prices and making dairy prospects far from bright.

NEW ZEALAND RIDES
 Wellington—New Zealand, one of the richest countries in the world, is exceeded only by the United States and Canada in the number of automobiles owned per capita, one car for every 11 inhabitants. Sales are dependent upon the financial condition of pastoral industries. Most of the cars and trucks purchased are American made, the country being eighth on the list of best automobile customers of the United States.

MARKET FOR ASPARAGUS
 Canton—American asparagus has virtually driven the French product from the Chinese market having become an important part of the menu at the more elaborate dinners and feasts of the upper class Chinese. More than 95 per cent of it originates in California and most of it is consumed in restaurants.

USE SHORT LUMBER
 Washington—The War Department is planning to aid timber conservation by buying for its box and crating purposes lumber containing a large percentage of short lengths. Specifications have been changed to permit the use of many varieties of wood.

Politicians in Nation's Capital Talking Prospects

Washington, Feb. 15—(AP)—The Ohio situation, with its rapidly developing clash between Secretary Hoover and Senator Willis for control of the state's convention delegation, is setting the pace in early Republican politics, followed closely by increasing discussion of the "draft Coolidge" movement.

Ohio's Republican National Committeeman, Maurice Maschke, has joined those who are advocating the nomination of Herbert Hoover, and has challenged Senator Willis to make public any correspondence that would show that he has acted in bad faith in favoring the cabinet member over the Senator.

Willis issued a statement last night declaring Maschke had given him "his cordial assurance of support" and added that if the committeeman "assumes that his very surprising course in this matter will change my attitude, he is mistaken."

The contest between the two candidates will be carried to very polling place in Ohio, managers on both sides declaring full slates of delegates will be presented in every district. Representative Burton, Ohio member of the House, will be a candidate for Delegate-at-Large in support of Hoover. He said Robert Taft of Cincinnati, son of Chief Justice Taft, probably would be a candidate for Delegate-at-Large, pledged to Hoover.

From Albany, N. Y., where Governor Al Smith watches efforts of his friends to bring him the Democratic nomination, has come a new demand for the renomination of President Coolidge. It was voiced by Charles D. Hilles, National Republican Committeeman for New York, who spoke at a Lincoln Day dinner and devoted much time to comparing Lincoln and Coolidge.

Former Ambassador George Harvey, who arrived in New York yesterday from Europe, also expressed belief that President Coolidge could easily be re-elected if he would run, but added his thought that Mr. Coolidge was expressing a determination rather than a preference when he said he did not choose to run.

DELAYS RATE INCREASE
 Chicago, Feb. 14—(AP)—Chicago elevated train riders will have ten months, or more, to think up reasons why they should, or should not, pay more for their transportation.

David H. Jackson, chairman of the Illinois commerce commission, today said almost a year would elapse before the commission could act finally on the rapid transit's petition for elimination of three fare for twenty-five cents and the weekly pass, making the fare a uniform ten cents.

Three Speed Cars Ready for Contest

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 15—(AP)—Three motor cars were prepared for an attempt to lower the world's speed record for automobiles, 203.7 miles per hour.

The effort to smash the record set last year by Major H. O. D. Seagrave is part of the twenty-fifth annual speed carnival which opened today.

Frank Lockhart, Indianapolis, yesterday unloaded his small Stutz "Black Hawk Special," one of the high speed trio. Bullet shaped, fifteen feet and six inches in length, with a width of but two feet, the speedy appearance of the car is enhanced by its total height of only three feet, with ground clearance of five inches. Two banks of eight cylinders each comprise its motor, which has no radiator and is cooled by both water and ice.

The entry of Malcolm Campbell of London is likewise designed to combat the wind, one striking feature being a large fin-shaped rigid rudder in the rear to prevent the car from deviating from its course or developing tail wag. This car boasts a 900-horse-power British Air Service motor.

J. M. White, Philadelphia, with the third entry, will rely on titanic power alone in his effort, expecting his thirty six cylindered motor to make up for an almost total lack of stream line design. His car has three drive shafts direct to the rear axle, no clutch, transmission or reverse gear and has only one speed forward.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

PRE-LENTEN SERVICES
 The Union Pre-Lenten services of the Dixon churches will begin one week from today, Feb. 22. Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of the Central Christian church of Jacksonville, Illinois, will deliver the lectures at the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church of which Rev. L. W. Walter is the pastor. Services will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb. 22-24.

Legless Aviator to Try Ocean Journey
 New Martinsville, W. Va.—(AP)—A bid for trans-oceanic flying honors is planned for next June by Morris R. ("Dinger") Daugherty, 33, legless and one-armed aviator, of New Martinsville.

Daugherty, familiarly known to his townsfolk as the "flying assessor," says he will attempt to span the Atlantic in his "Spirit of New Martinsville" plane "for the sake of my native state."

The aviator, who lost his legs nearly 10 years ago when he fell under the wheels of a moving train, has been studying cross country flying at Sanford Flying Field, near Orlando, Fla., in preparation for his jaunt.

Daugherty's plane is virtually a duplicate of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's famous "Spirit of St. Louis." Daugherty's venture will be backed by citizens of New Martinsville.

Religious Work in Schools Theme

Chicago, Feb. 15—(AP)—Creation of a commission composed of recognized leaders of religious and public education, delegated to investigate the possibility of inclusion of religious instruction in public schools, was proposed here today at the meeting of the International Council of Religious Education by its general secretary, Dr. Hugh S. Magill. Representatives of 39 religious organizations in the United States and Canada were in attendance.

Recommendations of a course of action to be followed by the commission in studying the future of religion among American youth were submitted to the delegates by Dr. Magill. They embodied studies of problems concerning:

1. Can national morality prevail without religious convictions?
 2. Is there a recognition of God in our government?
 3. Is America a religious nation? Or, are the institutions of state and nation Godless?
 4. Is the lack of religious instruction responsible for the prevalence of juvenile crime?

5. Shall pupils in public schools be taught to sing the last verse of America, "Our Father's God to thee, author of Liberty," or from the Star Spangled Banner, "Praise the God that has made and preserved us as a nation?"

6. Is the teaching and singing of these national hymns in public schools a violation of the principle of religious liberty or of the doctrine of the separation of Church and State?

7. What should be the attitude of public school authorities to those who would provide religious instructions? "We do not claim that the public schools should formally teach religion," Dr. Magill said, "but we insist that provision must be made for the religious instruction of youth, or results disastrous to the state and to society will follow."

"CHIPS FROM WASHINGTON"

by
John H. Byers

February 13, 1928.
House Office Building.
Lincoln's birthday, Sunday, was launched with a series of impressive tributes in shrine and church, the celebration was carried over today with a program of ceremonies that centered around the Nation's majestic marble memorial to the Great Emancipator on the banks of the Potomac. Washington has no holiday on Lincoln's birthday, all government departments are closed for the day. I attended church Sunday night at the New York Avenue Presbyterian church in which Abraham Lincoln worshiped while President. The program was impressive and under the auspices of the League of Republican Organizations of the District of Columbia.

The exercises were confined almost entirely to a sermon delivered by Rev. Joseph R. Sizoo, pastor of the church; his subject was, "Lincoln, a Gift to the Ages." Admittance was by ticket. The historic old church was packed to capacity and several hundred persons were turned away for lack of space.

The pew in which President and Mrs. Lincoln sat when they attended services was draped with an American flag. On the platform, near the pulpit, was a likeness of Lincoln done in oil. In the audience were Gen. Charles G. Dawes and Mrs. Dawes, Vice President, and many others, prominent in official, political and social life of the national capital.

Dr. Sizoo read from the Bible used by Lincoln and which is one of the treasured relics of the church. Dr. Sizoo is the son of an immigrant, who came to America poor and unacquainted. As the boat came into the harbor the father pointed to the Statue of Liberty and said, "Son, there is something that America stands for, liberty and justice." The son, a little chap, asked the father if he knew anyone in America. "No, my son, but I have heard of a man called Abraham Lincoln, and they say he is honest, and if all the people of America are like Lincoln, then I am satisfied." "The first book my father bought for me was 'Brooks' Life of Lincoln, the Boy, and I read it several times, and now I have the good fortune to be the pastor of the church in which Lincoln worshiped," said the speaker.

It was my good fortune to occupy the pew just at the side of the Vice President and I had occasion to watch him as he drank in every word of the sermon, which was one of the best I ever heard preached on Abraham Lincoln. President Coolidge attended Lincoln services Sunday morning at his church, Mrs. Coolidge, who has been quite ill for nearly a week, did not attend.

Congressman William R. Johnson was one of the honor guests at the annual dinner given Saturday night at the Willard by the Military Order of the Carabao. He was the guest of Col. Charles O. Schuldt of the War Department. Col. Schuldt has a brother living in Freeport.

A bill for the reduction of the air mail postage rate from ten cents a half ounce to five cents an ounce has been approved by the House post office committee.

Out of 26,000,000 families it was found last year that 21,000,000 owned automobiles, 10,000,000 had phonographs, 6,000,000 had pianos and over 4,000,000 had radio sets.

If you wish to talk three minutes from Washington to Berlin it will cost you $22.50 and $27.50 for each succeeding minute. The report charge for calls falling of completion will be $12.50. With the extension of this service the American subscriber can now reach a total of 2,482,500 telephones across the Atlantic. Trans-Atlantic telephone service is now available for more than 18,300,000 telephones in the United States.

Mrs. Laura Wilson of Freeport is here the guest of her brother, Congressman Johnson.

Ten persons were killed by automobiles in Washington during the past four weeks.

Three women had their purses stolen while attending church services last week in Washington.

A total of 32,802 aliens were admitted to the United States during December, the number being 11,570 less than the average for the preceding 11 months, according to a statement made public on Feb. 9 by the Commissioner General, Harry E. Hull.

During the same month, a total of 30,502 aliens departed from this country which exceeded the number for any one month since July 1922, when departures numbered 30,834.

The Interstate Commerce Commission announced on Feb. 10 that oral argument on its tentative valuation of the Illinois Central Railroad and subsidiaries will be held on Feb. 20 and 21.

Congressman Charles Adkins of Decatur has returned from Illinois where he had been for several days, looking after personal business and attending the annual meeting of the grain elevator men of Illinois, at their meeting in Springfield. Charley came back with a lot of information concerning politics in Illinois. From all reports the situation is getting somewhat critical back home.

There's a lot of Hoover talk, but our constituent, Col. Lowden, is still in the race and forging ahead rapidly. As I looked at Charles Dawes in church last night, I thought, by golly he wouldn't make a bad fellow for president. Illinois should get something out of the big event at Kansas City. In the years gone by Illinois gave the country several splendid presidents.

Speaking of Illinois, down here we all get kidded about the one great state with but one United States Senator—but true as it is, Illinois has a senator that compares pretty well to a half dozen senators from some sections of the country.

COMPTON NEWS

Compton—Mrs. B. W. Gilmore spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Jones at Rochelle. Don Archer was here for a few days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Archer, and returned to Aurora Monday morning where he is employed at the Richard Wilcox Mfg. Co. of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bloom of Amboy visited here Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Taylor.

The high school banquet given at the M. E. church last Saturday evening by the Junior Class, was very well attended. The parlors were decorated in red and white with a touch of various colors, as to keep in with St. Valentine's Day. The proceeds of the affair go towards the production of an Annual by the Junior class.

Arthur Archer and Delos Butler entrained Monday for Ottumwa, Iowa. They will spend several days there, and expect to buy two carloads of Hereford heifers.

Wellington Butler has returned here from Madison, Wis., where he has been working for the Southern Wisconsin Road Construction Co.

He will remain here for an indefinite period to visit with his mother, Mrs. Ernest Butler, who has just recently returned to her home here, after undergoing an operation at the hospital at West Brooklyn.

Henry Bauman of Chicago submitted to an operation at the Compton hospital last Saturday.

"All A Mistake", a three act play will be presented at the Compton Opera House on Saturday, Feb. 18th. Something doing every minute. Costume novelties and snappy specialties between acts. The scene of the play takes place in the house and grounds of Capt. Obadiah Skinner adjoining the State Insane Asylum. In act one George, a bride, and an uncle. Too many wives for one man. Cornelia has a secret. A dude out wife-hunting. The musical system is used on the lunatics. Act two—"Romero, where art thou?" A letter for "Miss Nellie". Ferdie is sunk. The voice of a lunatic. George makes it hot for the much "stuck up" Richard. In the final act—Revenue is mine—with a butcher knife. Nellie's actions are "deuced strange don'tcherknow."

"Romero at last!" Only one Nellie in the world. The cat out of the bag—a white one. The play is given under the auspices of the M. E. Church Ladies Aid.

Leland Cook and Otto Weisensel are spending the week here at their respective homes, and will return to Chicago sometime next week where they are employed by the Thos. Wilson Co. there.—L. G. A.

Ohio—Thomas Shaw was unfortunate in having his Ford coupe stolen last week in Peoria.

Mrs. Elizabeth Keane of Dixon spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Mary Gorman.

Mrs. Alice Telkamp of Rockford spent a part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson.

The Good Housekeepers Club met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Darlene Sisler. Mrs. Gertrude Johnson and Mrs. Margaret Dewey assisted with the demonstrations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson went to Jacksonville, Florida, last Monday to bring back their Whippet sedan which was stolen several weeks ago in Burlington, Iowa.

The Thomas Shaw farm which was sold last Thursday at public auction was purchased by John Petzer.

J. H. Hiersa of Dixon has purchased the Meurer property on Main street. The building will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Kreitzer, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Hiersa, who are now conducting the "Green Parrot" sandwich and ice cream shop in the Remsburg building. Mr. and Mrs. Meurer who have been engaged in the restaurant business for some time have not definitely decided on their plans for the future.

G. L. Sisler returned home Saturday from a visit in Topeka, Kansas. R. W. Minkler was able to walk down town Saturday for the first time since his recent severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kerchner of Aurora spent the week end with relatives here.

Homer W. Parsons passed away at his home in this city at early hour Sunday morning after an illness of a few weeks from a complication of diseases. Mr. Parsons was a resident for many years of East Grove township but since his retirement from farm life has resided in this city where he has made many friends who are grieved by his passing. Mr. Parsons is survived by his loving wife, his son Claire who resides on the home farm and two daughters, Elvira and Esther at home, also a number of other relatives who have the deepest sympathy of many friends in their sorrow. Funeral services will be held at the M. P. church in this city on Tuesday afternoon and burial will be on the family lot in Union cemetery.

Friendship Chapter No. 376 O. E. S. held a School of Instruction in their chapter room last Wednesday. An all day session was held and a covered dish luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. Florence Hennick, Grand Lecturer of Aurora, was the Instructress. Several members from LaMoille chapter were present.

Miss Dorothy Jackson returned home Monday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Mildred Keeton in Topeka, Kansas.

Turkey Absorbing Austrian Culture

Vienna—(AP)—The new Turkish republic is following in the footsteps of the former empire, which always looked to Austria for advice and cooperation and sent its sons to Vienna for education and diplomatic training.

It is in this spirit that an Angora government requested the Austria police department to lend it an expert for the reorganization of its police forces and lately begged for a second officer to assist the first in this task.

An Austrian sculptor was entrusted with the execution of a great equestrian statue of Kemal Pasha, the president of the republic.

The Vienna architect, Dr. Klemens Holzmeister, who lately completed constructional work in Turkey, has obtained the commission to build an imposing building for the ministry of war at Angora.

Professor Egli, another Vienna architect, has designed a type of building accepted by the Turkish government as a model for school and other educational buildings.

TELL-TALE ARTERIES

Are your arteries showing a tendency towards becoming hard? Do you have any difficulty in breathing, heart palpitation or dizzy spells? Look out for high blood pressure! It's a dangerous condition that may cut life short.

Living at the pace we do today we put too great a strain upon our vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming "limp" or sluggish, fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. Then a toxic condition of the whole system, with heart and blood vessels affected.

The liver occasionally needs a little help and there's nothing better for this, as doctors agree, than ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning so essential to real health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few make a wonderful difference.

THE air on two sides of your door is radically different! Outside it is teeming with life and energy—because it's moist and moving. Inside it is dull and sluggish—chalk-dry and stagnant.

Air in the average home is as dry as in the Sahara Desert—by actual test. Dry air is dangerous. It draws moisture from the walls and furniture—from your skin and tender tissues of your throat—making you easy prey to colds. Now comes the Holland Vaporaire—positively the only home heating system that supplies circulating warm air with proper humidity (moisture in the air) constantly and automatically! An even flow of clean fresh air moves gently through every room, distributing between 3 and 25 gallons of vaporized water each day—holding an even temperature at floors and ceilings—and completely changing the air in your home every thirty minutes! EARL OF OXFORD AND ASQUITH IS SUMMONED TODAY laryngitis which left him so weak that his physicians have prescribed complete rest for many weeks.

End in Dissension

Lord Oxford's political career ended in party dissension with the man who in 1916 had succeeded him as Premier, David Lloyd George.

For the last two years of his Premiership, Earl Oxford faced the crises of the great war steadily, but it was felt that he lacked the magnetism necessary to guide Great Britain through the conflict and he stepped down, being succeeded by Lloyd George.

Then on another great crisis in England, the general strike of 1926, Earl Oxford censured Lloyd George for his attitude in favor of the miners. Efforts to bring about a reconciliation of the two Liberal leaders failed and in October, 1926, Lord Oxford announced his retirement as Liberal leader.

The career of Herbert Henry Asquith was one of the most distinguished among contemporary statesmen in England, where he was regarded as one of the most able, scholarly and hard-working leaders who ever headed the government. His long period of public service was replete in dramatic possibilities, but he never took advantage of them to play to the gallery. Seemingly content to lead his people by following them, he advanced quietly by sheer tenacity and hard work coupled with natural ability. One of his warmest admirers once observed that Asquith's modesty verged on deformity.

Predicted Success.

In 1868, as a London school boy of 16, Asquith is said to have told his schoolmates that one day he would be Lord Chancellor or Prime Minister, and constantly he asked his companions to test his knowledge of parliamentary procedure. If the story is true, it appears to be the only evidence that Asquith ever boasted of his knowledge or ability, or voiced his ambition.

Six years after Asquith became British prime minister in 1908, he was confronted with one of the most serious crises in the world's history—the outbreak of the great European War.

Quietly, he led a cheering nation into war, and through perhaps the most perilous months in its history. The first mad rush of the enemy was encountered, but few regarded the stolid man at No. 10 Downing Street as a savior. Domestic crises followed. Public opinion turned from the leader who lacked magnetism, and when the war was half over the leadership went to Lloyd George, who had just the human qualities that Asquith lacked. Asquith stepped aside, and the picturesque personality of his Welsh secretary of war replaced him.

But Englishmen insist Asquith stepped aside, not down, for there was no decline and fall for the scholarly statesman who remained just what he was in the beginning. His power was in himself, not in his office, and in a sense he had just as much, or just as little, influence after his resignation as when he was prime minister.

Remained Calm.

Throughout the awful years of war and the dreadful years of peacemaking, Asquith remained the same calm, steady bulwark of English ability and respectability. During all those trying times he scarcely raised his voice above an even tone. Blood had never got into his eyes, even when Lloyd George split his beloved Liberal Party wide open.

Asquith was growing old, but he held his grip of affairs with quiet tenacity. He lived not only to see the prodigal Lloyd George returned to the fold of orthodox Liberalism but to make Britain's first labor government possible by withdrawing Liberal support from the Conservative regime which Stanley Baldwin had led to disaster in the general election of December, 1923.

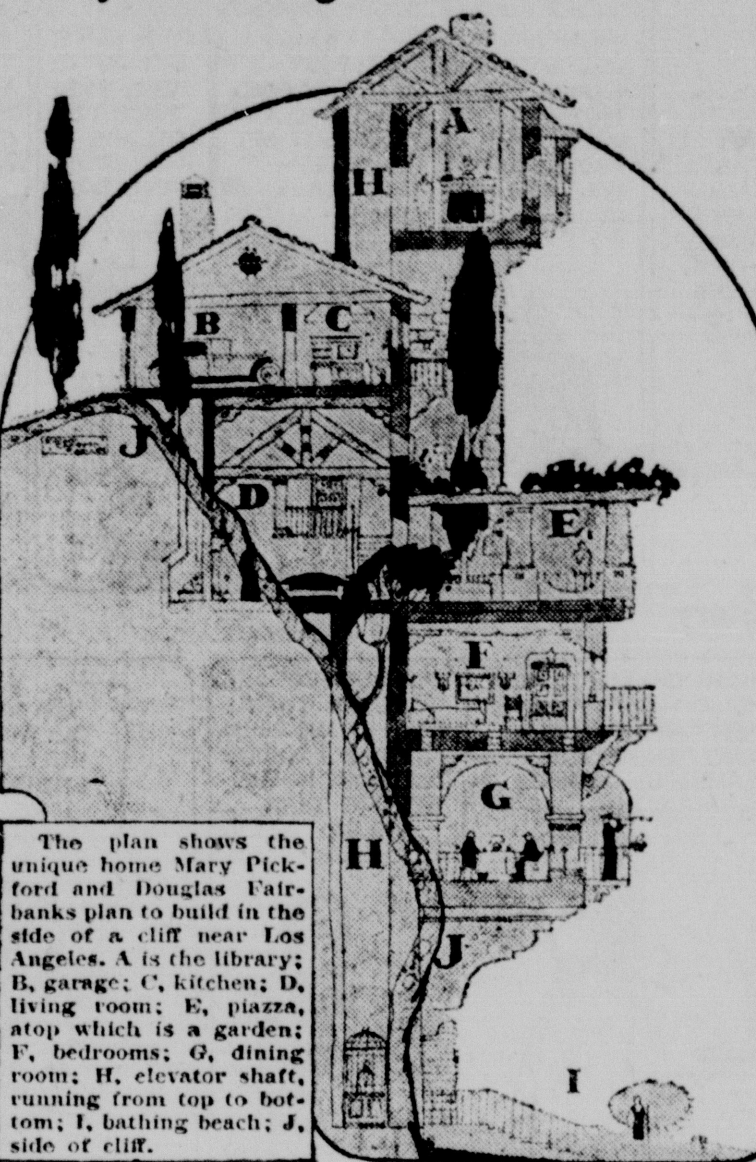

Upon Bonar Law's death Baldwin had inherited a large majority in the House of Commons. But Baldwin wanted a mandate of his own, so he went to the voters on the issue of imperial tariffs. Lloyd George returned from his triumphant American tour to plunge into the campaign under Asquith's banner, for when free trade was at stake, the schism in the Liberal party disappeared overnight. Baldwin's defeat was stunning. Conservatives retained only 259 of Bonar Law's 347 seats. Labor held 191, the United Liberals 159, while six independents were returned.

Unusual Situation. An unprecedented political situation confronted Great Britain. No party had the necessary majority to form a government. Labor was knocking at the door as the second strongest party.

With characteristic composure Asquith met the new crisis and on January 17, 1924, he announced that Liberals would support the Labor vote of no confidence in the Baldwin government. Baldwin resigned. Labor was inducted to power and the two-century precedent of England's two-party was destroyed. Thus at the age of 72 Asquith met another great crisis and dealt with it with the vigorous, fresh viewpoint of the youth who had entered the House of Commons nearly 40 years before.

Asquith started life with no advantages of fortune. He was born September 12, 1852 of a middle-class, nonconformist Yorkshire family. His father died when he was eight and the boy went to London to school. At school he won prize after prize. Then two scholarships to Balliol College came his way. At Oxford he developed as an orator, and like Lord Curzon, Grey and Milner belonged to the famous Oxford intellectual clique influenced by Jowett. Young Asquith made no profession toward athletics but was more human than John Morley, who never knew any physical recreation but walking. Asquith played quoits. In later life golf was his recreation.

In 1876 Asquith was admitted to the bar, and when still an almost briefless barrister, married his first wife, Helen Melland of Manchester. Four children were born of the union. His wife died in 1891 and later he pursued and captured the cleverest political woman of London of that day, Miss Margot Tennant. Five children were born of the subsequent marriage. Three died at birth.

In Parliament in 1886, Asquith entered parliament in 1886, giving up a highly successful legal practice and three-quarters of his income. He was one of a few young parliamentarians to have had his maiden speech eulogized by Joseph Chamberlain, and his clear ideas, lucid style and brilliant oratory soon attracted attention from older members of the house. Shortly after his election one of his motions brought about the downfall of Lord Salisbury's cabinet and Gladstone ascended to power. Six years later Gladstone gave him the Home Office portfolio and thus at the age of 40 he was a cabinet minister. He conducted great reforms in the Home Office, and then was put on the opposition benches for ten years by the victory of the Unionist party and Lord Salisbury, who was succeeded by his nephew, Arthur Balfour.

Liberals returned to power in 1905 and Asquith was made Chancellor of the Exchequer under Sir Harry Campbell-Bannerman. He introduced big budgets and showed such talent in keeping the nation's check-book that when the prime minister died in 1908 there was no reason for the Liberal party to seek a leader. Asquith was the logical man.

Advocated Reforms. One in power Asquith began a policy of radical parliamentary, social and constitutional reform that continued throughout his career, and by no means the least radical of his acts was that of 1924 when his attitude made possible Labor rule in England. No political figure in a century had such important problems to solve; free trade fights, opposition from the House of Lords, the Great War, and finally the question "should Labor rule?"

In all these great crises his calm and direct manner secured support from his friends and respect from his political enemies. Being without egotism, vanity, jealousy or patriotism, he did not insist on playing the leading role always. When one of his colleagues in the cabinet suggested a reform he let him work it out in his own way, at the same time giving him his strong and whole-hearted support. When the national insurance scheme providing sickness benefits, the workman's compensation act, old-age pensions for the poorer classes and the measure restricting the power of the House of Lords to veto popular legislation were under discussion. Asquith lent them all the support of his strong intellect and lucid, orderly thought.

The Great War came to his calm being like a bolt from the blue, but he handled the crisis with great skill until the disjointed times demanded a more emotional leader. In foreign affairs Asquith had wanted the closest relations with foreign powers. He was without prejudice or ill-feeling abroad, as at home. He disliked the prevalent Rusophobia of his land. He stood by the entente with France but he looked upon the alliance as but the first step toward a series of other ententes in which Germany would find her place.

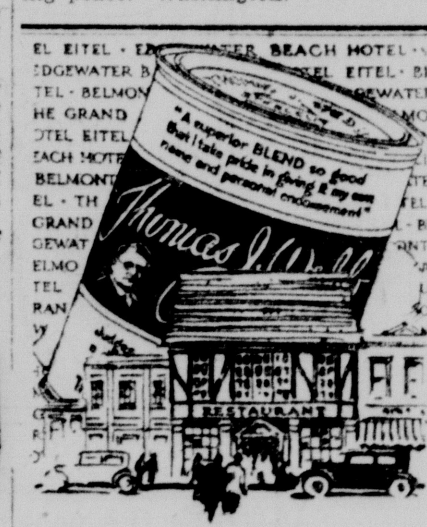

Wanted No Alliances. However, he did not want formal alliances. In these days of European appeals for American participation in continental affairs, Asquith's words in what is probably his best remembered speech of the pre-war era read strangely. He asked: "What have the people of Great Britain done or suffered that they must now go touting for alliances in the highways and byways of Europe?"

As for his American attitude even before Anglo-American accord became the subject of such widespread hands-across-the-sea enthusiasm, Mr. Asquith stood much more strongly than many English statesmen for the friendliest of relations with the United States. Speaking during the Spanish-American war, he said: "My sympathies are, and have been from the first, entirely and heartily with the United States."

In liberating Cuba, he said, the American nation was responding to the demand of humanity and liberty, and was setting a worthy example to the great powers of the world. Speaking later in the same year, he rejoiced in the drawing together of the American and English peoples "not in a mere gust of transient enthusiasm, but by a strong and durable bond."

Population Outlook

Chicago, Feb. 14—(AP)—So great is the industrial future of the states of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan that the population of that area will be increased nearly 50 per cent, or about 8,000,000, within the next 30 years. Major Rufus W. Putnam of Chicago predicted at the opening of the Midwest Power Conference today.

Flood Committee Will Call Hoover

Washington, Feb. 14—(AP)—Secretary Hoover is to be called before the Senate Commerce committee to give his views on the administration's plan of flood control.

After a bitter fight, the committee voted 7 to 6 to invite the presence of the Commerce Secretary, who now is on a fishing trip in Florida and who made several trips into the flood district as the personal representative of President Coolidge.

The movement to call Mr. Hoover was sponsored largely by Senator Hawes, Democrat, Missouri, and Senator Willis, Republican, Ohio, who has promised the Secretary a fight without gloves in the Ohio presidential primary.

Several weeks ago Senator Willis suggested that the Secretary be called, but he was blocked by Chairman Jones, who contended it would be unfair to request one member of the cabinet to testify on a question under jurisdiction of another member. Senator Willis offered to absent himself from participation in the examination of Mr. Hoover if such participation would prove embarrassing.

One of the questions which have been asked various witnesses in the flood control hearings is whether they favor state participation in the expense of curbing the waters, or whether this should be a national burden. The administration plan calls for such participation, but this question has become a much disputed point in congress. Mr. Willis has expressed doubt whether state participation would be feasible.

Ohio Committeeman to Support Hoover

Cleveland, O., Feb. 14—(AP)—Maurice Maschke, Republican National Committeeman for Ohio, today threw his support definitely to Herbert Hoover, as the party's candidate for president.

"The Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) party organization almost to a unit believes Hoover the strongest man the Republicans can select for the presidential nomination," Maschke declared.

"Personally I believe his nomination would most likely carry the party to victory here this coming fall, so I am going to support the Hoover candidacy."

Maschke's statement set at rest conjecture as to whether he would align himself with Hoover or Senator Frank B. Willis in the impending fight for the Ohio delegation to the national convention.

ADVERTISING RESULTS

Chicago, Feb. 14—(AP)—Attraction, interest and stimulation of desire for possession.

These are the reactions to modern advertising, tersely summed up for the Illinois Manufacturers' Costs Association by W. B. Weisenburger, banker of St. Louis.

And the greatest of them is stimulation, he added, "for an idea is mentioned, minutes later it is transmitted to the world's ends, and the following day everybody is wanting it."

$1,000,000 BONDS

Chicago, Feb. 14—(AP)—Bonds of $1,000,000 each were set today for John Daly, 19, and James McKay, 32, in connection with their attempted robbery Saturday night of the home and private hospital of Dr. H. J. Millstone.

The huge amount was fixed by Municipal Judge John L. Lyle, who swept into the headlines three years ago with a campaign for high bonds for law breakers of certain classes. Judge Lyle only recently returned to the criminal bench after a time in other courts.

JEALOUSY OF FARM BODIES DELAYS LAWS

Charge Made Tuesday by Representative from Kentucky

Washington, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Delay in farm relief legislation was laid at the door of national farmers' organizations by Representative Kincheloe, Democrat, Kentucky, at hearings today before the house agricultural committee.

With the appearance of Louis J. Taber, Master of the National Grange, charges that jealousy existed between the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange in Illinois, were brought up by Kincheloe. He questioned Taber on reports that the Farm Bureau Federation had brought pressure to bear on David Kinley, president of the University of Illinois, to prevent the appearance before the committee of Professor Charles L. Stewart on the export debenture farm relief plan. Taber said that he had heard such reports, but that he was not in a position to speak authoritatively on the subject.

Taber said one reason which has kept the national farm organizations from getting together was "politics and outside influences."

Representative Anderson, Republican, Minnesota, asked Taber if the National Grange was killing to meet with representatives of the Farm Bureau Federation is the next few days to try for an agreement on farm relief, and Taber assented.

"If it is desirable," he said, "we will issue such an invitation, but I say right now that it is useless if any group nails up the equalization fee and says take that or nothing. That attitude will not be accepted by a sixty-one year old organization like the Grange with nearly 1,000,000 members."

The equalization fee principle is embodied in the McNary-Haugen bill.

Shortly before the meeting adjourned, Anderson announced that he intended to introduce a resolution calling for the committee to go in to executive session for consideration of farm relief measures.

Fight to Save Girl

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Attorney James C. O'Brien, retained by the Women's Protective Association, today entered into a long distance fight to save Doris Palmer McDonald, New York show girl, from death on the gallows at Montreal. She is under sentence to hang March 29 for murder.

Attempts to save the girl were started by her mother, Mrs. Michael Greco, formerly Mrs. Hazel Snyder of Chicago, who enlisted the aid of the Protective association. The mother, who has not seen her daughter for 15 years, and three members of the Protective association conferred with Attorney O'Brien to prepare affidavits which it is hoped may induce the Canadian courts to leniency toward the convicted girl.

"If necessary, I will go to Montreal to plead my case," said Attorney O'Brien. "We have affidavits to show the girl was mentally irresponsible."

McANDREW TRIAL ENDS

Chicago, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Introduction of evidence on charges of insubordination against William McAndrew, former Superintendent of Schools, whose school board trial has continued weeks after his term of office expired, was completed today in a fifteen minute session. There remained further evidence on supplementary charges to be completed, however, before the defense evidence. The trial was adjourned until Feb. 23 because of illness of two school board attorneys.

CATARRH

By L. W. Oaks, M. D., Provo, Utah. Member Gorgas Memorial

(The following is one of a series of articles prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial as part of its Better Health and Longer Life program. President Coolidge is the honorary president of the Memorial, which has been organized and endowed by prominent doctors and laymen throughout the country to perpetuate the work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Gorgas Memorial are at 400 North Michigan Avenue Chicago.)

In former days, when dawn of medical knowledge had merely announced its approach, the name catarrh had a wide use by members of the medical profession. Today the word is rarely employed by physicians trained in disease of the nose, throat and ears; because they have learned it is only a term used to cover a lack of exact knowledge.

People in general have come to regard catarrh as meaning some stubborn disease of the nose or its associated structures, which is attended by more or less discomfort, and some dropping of secretion from behind the palate into the throat. They also frequently consider interference with proper breathing through the nose as being due to this condition.

As a matter of fact, these symptoms may come from any one or more of nearly a dozen different diseases in the nose and throat. This list includes widely varying troubles, from stopping up of the nose by new growths or shrinking away of soft tissues there, which leaves abnormally great space with marked crusting and very foul breath. Deformities within the nose are usually responsible; and they, in combination with infection, account for nearly all troubles inside the nose.

Many charlatans are daily extracting money from innocent victims for the treatment of "catarrh," without any more knowledge of what they are trying to treat than their patrons themselves have. In most instances, the proper treatments for these various diseases are as different from each other as are the correct measures for appendicitis and a broken leg. It is obvious, then, that no one who really desires to be of service to his patient will even prescribe for such trouble, without first making a proper examination of the sufferer's nose, sinus cavities, and throat, at least. Guessing is not a scientific means of investigation; and he who accepts anyone's guess in matters pertaining to that most precious of possessions—his health—is certain to suffer in consequence.

Consult your physician and give him a chance to see what is wrong, so he may help you to right it.

Britten for "Cal"

Washington, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Representative Britten of Illinois, one of the leaders of the "big navy" group in the House said today he would not fight for the building of the administration's naval program in five years, but that he intended to support President Coolidge, whose wish it is to have no time limit specified.

Britten heretofore has led the fight for the construction of the various elements of the naval program within a specified time limit. After a call at the White House today he said that he had been convinced that the President was right in desiring to round out the navy in keeping with the condition of the Treasury and that he expected to support both in the House naval committee and on the floor the program of Mr. Coolidge as submitted recently to Congress.

This plan contemplates the construction of 25 cruisers, five airplane carriers, nine destroyer leaders and 32 submarines at a cost of $740,000,000 over a period of possibly eight years but without any stipulation made in the bill as to when building should begin or be completed.

Replying to charges that the administration's program was a highly expensive one, Mr. Britten declared that if it were carried out over a period of eight years it would add only 29 per cent over the navy budget for appropriations submitted this year.

There are two million lepers in the world. About one-fourth are in China. India has nearly as many.

Preventatives Needed

Against Tooth Decay

New York—(AP)—Tooth decay has become such a scourge that dentistry should turn its attention to means of preventing this "most prevalent of all human diseases," says Dr. Alfred Walker, clinical professor of pulp canal therapy in the New York University college of dentistry. "While great strides have been made in restorative dentistry, little has been discovered in the way of preventive measures," Dr. Walker asserts. "It is well established that unhealthy conditions in the mouth may and do induce serious bodily diseases."

"A serious problem confronts the dental profession. The race is so swift with this scourge of tooth decay that if dentists were to devote all of their time to filling cavities in teeth they could not begin to cope with the situation. The only hope is in finding a means for prevention."

Thousand Laboratories

Devoted to Research

Washington—(AP)—The number of research laboratories in the United States has almost doubled in the last six years.

Maurice Holland, director of the division of engineering and industrial research of the national research council, says in a report to the highway research board that 1,000 of these plants for the discovery and development of fundamental knowledge are now in operation.

Citing the Lindbergh flight across the Atlantic as an example of the popularization of science, he points out that, since that achievement, 117 airplane factories in this country have been running behind the demand for machines.

Fights Tax Dodger

Rock Island, Ill., Feb. 15—(AP)—Harry McCaskin, representative from this district will "fight the Millionaire Tax Dodger" if reelected to the Illinois General Assembly, he announced today.

"They steal tax money from farm owners, home owners, roomers and boarders, and pay little or no taxes," he said. "The cause taxes are needed—high—they cause high house rent and high room rent and high board. They make the high cost of living for the great common people."

"These Millionaires pay little or no taxes. In that way they steal tax money from farmers, from school funds, from teachers' salaries—from little children's chances from funds that might help cure the insane."

"They even steal from paupers at the poor farm."

THE "CANARY" MURDER CASE

by S. S. VAN DINE AUTHOR OF THE BENSON MURDER CASE

CHARACTERS

PHILIP VANCE, Attorney of New York County. MARGARET ODELL (THE CANARY), a Manhattan town. KENNETH SPOTSWOOD, a manufacturer. LOUIS MANNIX, an importer. DR. AMBROSIO LINQUIST, a fashionable neurologist. TONY SKEEL, a professional burglar. WILLIAM ELMER JESSUP, telephone operator. HARRY SPIVELY, telephone operator. ROBERT HEATH, Sergeant of the Homicide Bureau.

THE STORY THUS FAR Because Skeel's finger prints were found in the "Canary" apartment, Markham believes Skeel was Margaret Odell's murderer. But Vance (Charles Skeel) has been hiding in a clothes closet of a jewel case that had been opened with a steel drill over and over again with a poker and because he holds that the crime was the work of a man with superior intellect, Markham ridicules the theory and Vance, investigating on his own, finds a picture of the Odell apartment to Alva La Fosse.

The mention of the Canary's name brought Miss La Fosse suddenly to her feet. Her ingratiating air of affected elegance had quickly disappeared. Her eyes flashed, and their lids drooped harshly. A sneer distorted the lines of her cupid's-bow mouth, and she tossed her head angrily.

"Say, listen! Who do you think you are? I don't know nothing, and I got nothing to say. So run along—you and your lawyer."

But Vance made no move to obey. He took out his cigarette case and carefully selected a Regie.

"Do you mind if I smoke?—And won't you have one? I import them direct from my agent in Constantinople. They're exquisitely blended."

The girl snorted, and gave him a look of cold disdain. The doll-baby had become a virago.

"Get yourself out of my apartment, or I'll call the house detective." She turned to the telephone on the wall at her side.

Vance waited until she had lifted the receiver.

"If you do that, Miss La Fosse, I'll order you taken to the district attorney's office for questioning," he told her indifferently, lighting his cigarette and leaning back in his chair.

Slowly she replaced the receiver and turned.

"What's your game, anyway? . . . Suppose I did know Mary?—then what? And where do you fit into the picture?"

"Alas! I don't fit in at all," Vance smiled pleasantly. "But, for that matter, nobody seems to fit in. The truth is they're about to arrest a poor blighter for killing your friend, who wasn't in the tableau, either. I happen to be a friend of the district attorney's; and I know exactly what's being done. The police are scouting round in a perfect frenzy of activity, and it's hard to say what trail they'll strike next."

"I thought, don't you know, I might save you a lot of unpleasantness by a friendly little chat. . . . Of course," he added, "if you prefer to have me give your name to the police, I'll do so, and let them hold the audition in their own inimitable but cruel fashion."

"Who are they thinking of arresting?" She asked the question with scarcely a movement of her features.

"The girl had stood, one hand on the telephone, studying Vance intently. He had spoken carelessly and with a genial infection; and she at length resumed her seat.

"Now, won't you have one of my cigarettes?" he asked, in a tone of gracious reconciliation.

Mechanically she accepted his offer, keeping her eyes on him all the time, as if attempting to determine how far he was to be trusted.

AMERICAN KICK WINS REVERSAL IN SKATE RACE

Jaffee Recognized as 10,000 Meter Champ in Olympic Event

St. Moritz, Switzerland, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Recognizing the protest of the United States, the executive commission of the International Olympic Committee has reversed a decision by the International Skating Federation and installed Irving Jaffee of New York as the official 10,000 meters speed skating champion.

Jaffee thereby gains the distinction of becoming the first United States champion in the 1928 Olympic events.

The Skating Federation cancelled the 10,000 meters event because of foggy ice after Jaffee and five other contestants had finished their heats. The dispute arose after Clas Thunberg of Finland had won the 1,500 meter race, the only other skating contest on the day's skating program.

When the 10,000 meters event was called off, Jaffee was considered a virtual winner with a time of 18 minutes, 36 5-10 seconds.

The American protest was made by Augustus T. Kirby, official representative of the United States, and he was supported by P. J. Mulqueen of Canada and the Norway delegate. Receiving no satisfaction from the Federation, they took their plea to the international committee.

Kirby and Mulqueen were agreeable to postpone the other heats but objected to the cancellation. The proposal of Marquise de Polignac of France that Jaffee be acknowledged the champion but that another competition should be held before the close of the winter sports program was approved by the executive commission.

Locke, Cornhuskers' Star, Enters Meets

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Interest in track affairs mounted today with the presence of Rolland Locke, Nebraska's sprint star, who is here to join the New York A. C. with prospects of competing in three indoor events during the next two weeks.

Locke, who holds the world's 220-yard record, will make his initial New York appearance at the New York A. C. games next Monday when he will race against a fast field, including Karl Wildermuth of Georgetown, Frank Hussey of the New York A. C., Henry Russell of the Penn. A. C., Bartholomew of Penn. State and Quinn and Daley of Holy Cross, in a special 60-yard dash.

Locke arrived here late yesterday afternoon. He is expected to enter either the national 60 or 300-yard championships of the National A. A. U. contests on Feb. 25 and the events of the Knights of Columbus meet on Feb. 29. Jole Ray, one time leader of America's milers, is to stack up against Leo Lermond of the Boston A. A. and other crack runners in a two-mile race in the Knights of Columbus games.

Fuit Wilkins, national decathlon champion, is entered in the Knights of Columbus meet also and will be pitted against Barney Berlinger of Pennsylvania and Emerson Norton of the Illinois A. C. in the septathlon. Harold Osborn, holder of the world's starters in the septathlon as well.

Purdue Team Shows Increase in Power

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Instead of slowing up, Purdue's basketball team is developing greater offensive and defensive power as it hurdles opponent after opponent in its quest for the Big Ten title.

Last night the Boilermakers swamped Illinois, 40 to 14, at LaFayette.

"Stretch" Murphy, Purdue's elongated center, bagged 12 points in the game. Cummins, high point scorer for the Big Ten last season, also entered the competition last night, and looped two field goals and seven three throws. Harneson, star Purdue forward, twisted his ankle in the first three minutes of the game and may be out of the game for two weeks.

Last night's victory gave Purdue a firmer grasp on the Conference leadership with five victories and no defeats.

One great obstacle loomed in Purdue's path today, however—Indiana. The Boilermakers will play their traditional enemy, Indiana, at Bloomington Saturday in the feature game of the week. Purdue won the first game with the Hoosiers by a narrow margin at LaFayette, but Indiana is confident it can take the leaders' measure on its home floor.

Three other games are on the conference schedule this week. They are: Illinois at Chicago, Friday; Northwestern at Minnesota and Ohio at Wisconsin, Saturday.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(BY THE AP)

Indianapolis—Spug Myers, Pocatello, Idaho, knocked out Eddie Dyer, Toledo (2). Tony LaRose, Cincinnati, and Tommy Milton, Toledo, drew (8).

Milwaukee—Billy Light, St. Paul, won from Floyd Hybert, Cleveland (10).

Hot Springs, Ark.—Milton Manguna, New Orleans, outpointed Johnny Rosen, New York (10).

Los Angeles—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles, defeated Vince Dundee, Baltimore (10). Billy Burke, Los Angeles, outpointed Johnny Reiser, New York (6).

SPORT SLANTS

BY ALAN J. GOULD

(Associated Press Sports Editor)

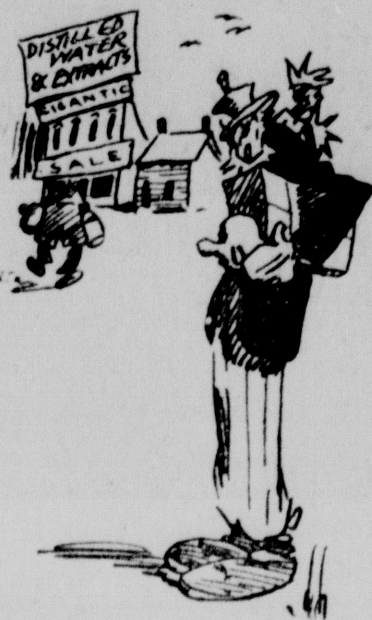

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The base ball birds are flitting southward. Intimate details of their progress already are being dispatched by the energetic correspondents. The holdouts who were so adamant a few weeks ago are falling into line. The magnates talk of booming the amateur game for boys throughout the country.

There will be no little concern in the news that comes back from the training camps.

Gotham fans will want to know whether the Jewish hope of the Giants, Andy Cohen, will fit into the somewhat ample niche vacated by Rogers Hornsby, or whether Frank O'Doul, the rejuvenated veteran from San Francisco, swings a mean enough club to break into the regular outfield cordon.

Likewise it will be of interest to Boston whether Horsch puts the expected new dash and punch into the Braves.

How the St. Louis Browns will assort their new talent in the rebuilding process; what the Senators will do

ABE MARTIN

"Well, that's nobuddy's business as long as he don't send out invitations," said Tell Binkley, when he heard o' th' Connecticut feller that'd married sixteen different women. Colonel Lindbergh has got it all over other celebrities. He kin excuse himself t' work on his engine.

with two such first basemen as Sisler and Judge around; how Tris Speaker will fit into Connie Mack's machine; whether "Sparkey" Adams fills the long-felt Pirate need for a second baseman and how Kiki Cuyler fares under Chicago Cub leadership are only a few of the salient features of the spring training program.

Since the Pittsburgh Pirates obtained Lloyd Waner at bargain rates, chiefly on brother Paul's recommendation, major league teams have been scanning the family connections of other stars.

This research seems to have led to the Yankees signing Nick Moore on the advice of his older brother Wiley, whose good right arm had as much to do with the Huguenots' victory last year as any other factor.

Nick is also a right handed pitcher. He has been working in semi-pro circles of Texas and Oklahoma, where the Waners got their start along the road to fame.

Jack Dempsey, the New York Sun discovers, has bought a machine of the treadmill type for indoor exercise that will take the place of road work. What, the experts immediately rise to inquire, is the necessity of Dempsey's going in for life on the treadmill if he hasn't some fighting plans in view?

Legion to Stimulate Sandlot Ball Teams

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Sandlot baseball, suffering from the rapid inroads of golf and other sports, is to be stimulated by the American Legion, backed by financial and moral support from the major leagues.

Recognizing the need for more talent on the baseball diamond and certain that some of the best talent among American youths is never found, the American, and National Leagues have voted to guarantee $50,000 toward developing the American Legion's plan to bring 10,000 American youths into baseball competition each year through state, regional and national tournaments.

Under the Legion's plan, the United States will be divided into an eastern and western division. Each of these major divisions will be divided into ten smaller ones with several states in each group. The state champions will meet in elimination games at regional tournaments and the winners of each major division will meet annually for the national championship in a "Little World Series." Boys under 17 years will be eligible to play and the first series will be held this summer. The national champions will be guests at the major World Series. Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, President John A. Heydler of the National League and President E. S. Barnard of the American League praised the Legion's effort to stimulate interest in the national game.

Two Champs Agree to Risk Titles

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Boxing champions Sammy Mandell and Mickey Walker have at last acceded to the demands of the National Boxing Association, agreeing to risk their titles to outstanding challengers this summer.

Mandell's manager, Eddie Kane, yesterday signed a contract with Promoter Jim Mullen of Chicago for a lightweight championship match with Jimmy McLarnin of Los Angeles June 21. Jack Kerns, manager for Walker, also promised Mullen that Walker would risk his middleweight crown against Ace Dundee, the "Nebraska Wildcat," Joe Anderson of Cincinnati or any other outstanding challenger on July 26.

The Mandell-McLarnin match, which would be fought on a percentage basis and at 135 pounds, has one "if." That is that McLarnin must make a satisfactory showing against Sid Terris in their match at New York on Feb. 24. If McLarnin is decisively defeated Mullen has the right to cancel the championship bout or name some other challenger satisfactory to Kane and the champion.

WARHOP SIGNS UP

Freeport, Ill., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Jack Warhop, Freeport, former pitcher for the New York Yankees and last year with Bridgeport in the Eastern League has signed with Portland of the Pacific Coast League as a coach of pitchers and will himself take a turn on the mound.

CALDWELL WILL PLAY

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Bruce Caldwell, football star ineligible last fall to be in Yale's lineup against Princeton and Harvard because he played a game while a freshman at Brown, will wind up his college days this spring as a varsity baseball player. He is a senior.

The rule at Yale under which the Board of Athletic Control declared Caldwell ineligible is applicable specifically as to the sport in which the status of a player is questioned and is not all inclusive as regards other sports. Caldwell was deemed ineligible in football but his right to play in any other sport is unquestioned.

Caldwell is a strong right hand batter, has been on second base but will try out for the first sack.

FOOTBALL DREW CROWDS

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Despite a shorter schedule and fewer players the national Professional Football League packed nearly a half million spectators into its parks last season. President Joe Carr has reported.

The total attendance—490,755—was an increase of more than 70,000 over the turnstile records of the previous season when 23 clubs played 130 professional games. Last season there were 13 clubs and 93 games. Total admission receipts were not revealed.

From an attendance standpoint Red Grange's New York Yankees and the Chicago Bears were the best drawing cards in the circuit, Carr said. The Yankees-Bears game here last fall drew 19,912 paid admissions.

MCCARTHY AWAITS CUBS

Avalon, Santa Catalina Island, Cal. Feb. 15.—(AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy, having seen to it that all was in readiness for the occasion, awaited the arrival here today of the vanguard of the Chicago Cubs, pulling in from the east for spring conditioning on this island.

The advance guard of the Cubs, called for. Nebraska officials request including coaches, pitchers, catchers and a fielder or two, were slated to arrive in Los Angeles this morning, stop there only long enough for breakfast, hop aboard the train for Wilmington, and there embark for the 20-odd-mile sea trip here.

FIELDS IS WINNER

Los Angeles, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The flashing left of Jackie Fields, Los Angeles welterweight contender, has advanced him another step in his drive for a chance at Joe Dundee's title.

Jackie carried the fight from the start in his bout with Vince Dundee, brother of the champion, here last night to win a decision in ten rounds.

HUDKINS' ULTIMATUM

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Ace Hudkins declared today that he would quit the ring unless given an opportunity to meet champion Joe Dundee for the welterweight title.

Hudkins said he expected to knock out Sergeant Sammy Baker in their melee here Friday night and that if he isn't carded against Dundee afterwards, he will hang up the gloves and go into business.

Hudkins is an 8 to 5 favorite to defeat Baker.

A. I. IN NEW OFFICES

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Headquarters of the American League were moved above the sky-line today, when President E. S. Barnard unlocked the door of his new offices located in the tower of the Straus Building on Michigan Boulevard. The new quarters consist of a five room suite on the 23rd floor overlooking Lake Michigan. All furnishings including desks, chairs, steel files and rugs are new.

The old office of the League were located in the Fisher Building during the 27-year reign of Ban Johnson.

WILL PLAY IN LINCOLN

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Syracuse University will play Nebraska in football at Lincoln next fall instead of at Archbold Stadium as the original contract between the schools called for. Nebraska officials request ed the change to allow the addition of Army to their schedule and the athletic governing board of Syracuse University ratified the shift. The game will be played October 20.

JUDICIAL ELECTION

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Governor Len Small last night issued a proclamation for a special election in Rock Island, Mercer, Whiteside and Henry counties on May 8 to fill the vacancy of the 14th judicial circuit judge, left vacant by the death of Judge Church.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Swimming stars from the middlewest tonight will attempt to lower records at the Central Amateur Athletic Union's indoor meet at the Cherry Circle Club's pool.

Plans Rome Flight

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—A 4,200 mile nonstop trans-Atlantic flight, from Wilmington, Del. to Rome, will be attempted this spring by Lieut. George B. Davis of Detroit, veteran army pilot who saw service in the World War.

Announcement of the flight was made here last night by C. P. Rogers of the DuPont Interests, which will finance Davis. The hop will be made about March 1, he said.

A new type of plane for long flight, having two 18-cylinder motors coupled on one shaft, will be used, Rogers said. The plane now being tested at Wilmington, is a Stinson-Detroit capable of 440-horsepower.

DAVENPORT MENACED

Davenport, Iowa, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Davenport is menaced by the deadly malady, scarlet fever, with 31 cases already reported.

School and city health authorities are cooperating to stamp out the contagion among children.

No deaths have been reported yet, and the absence of new cases during the last several days is taken as a hopeful sign that the progress of the malady may be abating. The quarantine has been lifted in one case.
